Very Latest Report Has Them Sends Word That He Will Sell Signed to Fight in Fiesta Week.

Officials say these stories are not merely a serious reflection on the rottring British ambassador, but on the British government, because they make it appear that the latter is influenced in its official action by petty society quarrels unworthy of serious attention.

It is influented in official circles that a possible cause for the retirement of Sir Henry may be found in recent abilists in British polities. The retiring British ambassador was appointed to Washinston by Lord Lansdowne when he was foreign secretary in the Balfour Conservative Cabinet, and his affiliations are nearly altegether with that party.
